

Tenure track position in Finance

The Department of Business Administration at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (uc3m) invites applications for full-time tenure track positions in Finance.

We seek highly qualified candidates who are committed to a career in research and teaching at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. Applicants should hold a Ph.D. or have completed the requirements for such a degree by the date of employment (no later than September 2019). Knowledge of Spanish is not required.

We will be conducting interviews at the AFA Annual Meeting in Atlanta on January 4-6, 2019 and at the Spanish Economic Association conference in Madrid on December 13-15, 2018. However, we will consider as well candidates who cannot attend these conferences.

We accept applications until November 25, 2018. Interested candidates should apply electronically at: <https://econjobmarket.org/positions/5041>

Applications should include:

- 1) a cover letter;
- 2) CV;
- 3) a job market paper (identified as such) and up to two additional papers;
- 4) three or more letters of recommendation.

An Overview of the Department

Research

The Department of Business Administration of Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (<http://www.business.uc3m.es/en/index>) has an international faculty and is committed to high standards of research and teaching. In recent years, faculty members have published their work in, among others, the Journal of Finance, the Review of Financial Studies, the Journal of Financial Economics, Econometrica, the Review of Finance, and the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis.

The Department provides faculty members with incentives to publish in top journals, funding for conferences, advanced computer resources, and access to the main research databases. Faculty members are also active in looking for research funding from public and private institutions.

Seminars

The department hosts a weekly seminar series, which brings to the department top international researchers. There is also a weekly internal seminar series where the department's faculty and Ph.D. students present their work. Apart from the seminar series, the department frequently organizes workshops, which bring together top researchers in the workshop's research area.

Ph. D. Program

The Department offers the Ph.D. Program in Business and Finance. The mission of the program is to train researchers in the areas of Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing, and enable them to develop their careers in prestigious universities and business schools. This program is taught in English and attracts an international group of students (https://www.uc3m.es/ss/Satellite/Doctorado/en/Detalle/Estudio_C/1371224133401/1371210298374/Business_and_Finance).

Excellence and international focus

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid holds the AACSB accreditation and our MBA program holds the AMBA accreditation. We encourage interaction with researchers from other countries by regularly hosting international visiting professors and by facilitating visits of our faculty members to universities around the world.

Teaching

At the undergraduate level, the members of our faculty teach mainly in the Bachelor Degrees in Business Administration and in Finance and Accounting, both ranked first in the country in their respective fields by the widely followed ranking of Bachelor Degrees of Spanish newspaper El Mundo. Our undergraduate degrees are offered both in English and in Spanish, so knowledge of Spanish is not a requirement to teach at the undergraduate level. Faculty members also teach in the Bachelor Degree in Economics and other related programs.

Our department offers several Master programs, both research-oriented and designed for professional practice. These programs are taught in English. We offer official Master degrees in Finance, Management, and Marketing, as well as an (AMBA accredited) MBA.