

Department of Business Administration
Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Tenure track position in Marketing

The Department of Business Administration at Carlos III University of Madrid invites applications for full-time tenure track positions in Marketing.

We seek highly qualified candidates who are committed to a career in research and teaching at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. Applicants should hold a Ph.D. or have completed the requirements for such a degree by the date of employment. Knowledge of Spanish is not required.

We will conduct interviews with candidates at the EMAC Job Market in Groningen (May 24-May 26, 2017). We will consider as well candidates who cannot attend this conference.

In order to ensure full consideration, applications must be received by July 1, 2017. However, those candidates interested in being interviewed at the EMAC conference must submit their applications no later than May 10, 2017.

Please apply electronically at <https://econjobmarket.org/postings.php?posid=3907>

Applications should include:

- 1) a cover letter;
- 2) CV;
- 3) a job market paper (identified as such) and up to two additional papers;
- 4) two or more letters of recommendation.

Specific enquiries or issues with your application may be directed to Sabine de Val Koenzen at recruiting.empresa@uc3m.es.

The Department provides faculty members with incentives to publish in top journals, funding for conferences, advanced computer resources, and access to the main research databases. Faculty members are also active in looking for research funding from public and private institutions.

Seminars

The department hosts a weekly seminar series, which brings to the department top international researchers. There is also a weekly internal seminar series where the department's faculty and Ph.D. students present their work. Apart from the seminar series, the department frequently organizes workshops, which bring together top researchers in the workshop's research area.

Ph. D. Program

The Department offers the Ph.D. Program in Business and Finance. The mission of the program is to train researchers in the areas of Management, Finance, Accounting and Marketing, and enable them to develop their careers in prestigious universities and business schools. This program is taught in English and attracts a very international group of students

Excellence and international focus

Carlos III University of Madrid holds the AACSB accreditation and our MBA program holds the AMBA accreditation. We are part of the European Institute for Advanced Studies in Management (EIASM). We have been active participants in the creation of the Iberoamerican Academy of Management (IAM) and the European Academy of Management (EURAM).

We encourage interaction with researchers from other countries by regularly hosting international visiting professors and by facilitating visits of our faculty members to universities around the world.

Teaching

At the undergraduate level, the members of our faculty teach mainly in the Bachelor Degrees in Business Administration and in Finance and Accounting, both ranked first in the country in their respective fields by the widely followed ranking of Bachelor Degrees of Spanish newspaper El Mundo. Our undergraduate degrees are offered both in English and in Spanish, so knowledge of Spanish is not a requirement to teach at the undergraduate level. Faculty members also teach in the Bachelor Degree in Economics and other related programs.

Our department offers several Master programs, both research-oriented and designed for professional practice. These programs are taught in English. We offer official Master degrees in Management, in Finance, in Marketing, and in Actuarial Science, as well as an (AMBA accredited) MBA.
