

Department of Business Administration
Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Tenure track position in Marketing

The Department of Business Administration at University Carlos III Madrid invites applications for full-time tenure track positions in Marketing.

We seek highly qualified candidates who are committed to a career in research and teaching at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. Applicants should hold a Ph.D. or have completed the requirements for such a degree by the date of employment. Knowledge of Spanish is not required.

We will conduct interviews with candidates at the EMAC Job Market in Oslo on May 25, 2016 and at the AMA Academic Placement Career Fair is from August 4th - 5th at the Marriott Marquis, Atlanta. We will consider as well candidates who cannot attend any of the above conferences.

In order to ensure full consideration, applications must be received by July 1, 2016.

Those candidates interested in being interviewed at the EMAC conference must submit their applications no later than May 10.

Please apply electronically at Econjobmarket.org:

<https://econjobmarket.org/AdDetails.php?posid=3394>

Applications should include:

- 1) a cover letter;
- 2) CV;
- 3) a job market paper (identified as such) and up to two additional papers;
- 4) two or more letters of recommendation.

An Overview of the Department

Research

The Department of Business Administration of University Carlos III, Madrid (<http://www.business.uc3m.es/en/index>) has an international faculty and is committed to high standards of research and teaching. In recent years, faculty members have published in, among others, the Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Administrative Science Quarterly, Management Science, Organization Science, Strategic Management Journal, Journal of Finance, Review of Financial Studies, Journal of Financial Economics, Econometrica, Review of Economic Studies, Journal of Marketing Research, Marketing Science, and The Accounting Review.

The Department of Business Administration of University Carlos III, Madrid has been consistently ranked as one of the top 2 Business Departments in Spain (<http://rankinguniversidades.es/>) and among the top 25 institutions in Europe in recent years (2006-2015) according to publications in top tier business journals (<http://jindal.utdallas.edu/the-utd-top-100-business-school-research-rankings/>).[1]

The Department provides faculty members with incentives to publish in top journals, funding for conferences, advanced computer resources, and access to the main research databases. Faculty members are also active in looking for research funding from public and private institutions.

Seminars

The department hosts a weekly seminar series, which brings to the department top international researchers. There is also a weekly internal seminar series where the department's faculty and Ph.D. students present their work. Apart from the seminar series, the department frequently organizes workshops, which bring together top researchers in the workshop's research area.

Ph. D. Program

The Department offers the Ph.D. Program in Business and Finance. The mission of the program is to train researchers in the areas of Management, Finance, Accounting and Marketing, and enable them to develop their careers in prestigious universities and business schools. This program is taught in English and attracts a very international group of students (http://www.uc3m.es/ss/Satellite/Doctorado/en/Detalle/Estudio_C/1371210417330/1371210298374/Business and Quantitative Methods).

International focus

We encourage interaction with researchers from other countries by regularly hosting international visiting professors and by facilitating visits of our faculty members to universities around the world.

We are part of the European Institute for Advanced Studies in Management (EIASM).

We have been active participants in the creation of the Iberoamerican Academy of Management (IAM) and the European Academy of Management (EURAM).

Teaching

At the undergraduate level, the members of our faculty teach mainly in the Bachelor Degrees in Business Administration and in Finance and Accounting, both ranked first in the country in their respective fields by the widely followed ranking of Bachelor Degrees of Spanish newspaper El Mundo. Our undergraduate degrees are offered both in English and in Spanish, so knowledge of Spanish is not a requirement to teach at the undergraduate level. Faculty members also teach in the Bachelor Degree in Economics and other related programs.

Our department offers several Master programs, both research-oriented and designed for professional practice. These programs are taught in English. We offer official Master degrees in Management, in Finance, in Marketing, and in Actuarial Science, as well as an MBA. Our MBA has the accreditation of the Association of MBAs (AMBA), being the first Master's Program from a Spanish public university to obtain this accreditation.

[1] The journals considered in the ranking are the A+ journals in Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing: The Accounting Review, Journal of Accounting and Economics, Journal of Accounting Research, Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial Economics, The Review of Financial Studies, Journal of Consumer Research, Journal of Marketing, Journal of Marketing Research, Marketing Science, Management Science, Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Administrative Science Quarterly, Organization Science, Strategic Management Journal.